Consultations. Consultations with CTL consultants can involve a wide range of instructional design and teaching with technology topics. They are confidential, independent of performance review procedures, and free of charge for IUPUI, IUPUC, and IU Fort Wayne faculty and graduate students.

Consultation topics include but are not limited to:

Instructional design

- Student learning outcomes
- Assessing student learning
- Active learning
- Course design
- Documenting your teaching
- Teaching philosophy statement
- Scholarship of teaching and learning

Teaching with technology

- Online teaching
- Canvas
- ePortfolio
- Instructional media
- Classroom technology implementation
- Student response systems

Classroom Observations. CTL consultants will conduct classroom observations for faculty who wish to analyze their classroom teaching behaviors or their presentation skills and discuss teaching improvement goals and strategies.

Online Course or Module Reviews. CTL consultants are available to review and provide feedback on a section of your online course or to perform a more in-depth review of your online or hybrid course.

Mid-Semester Student Feedback. Student focus groups facilitated by CTL consultants can provide you with feedback about what is working well and what could be improved in your course. Alternatively, mid-term student feedback can be collected using an online survey. Our consultants can work with you to tailor an online survey to meet your individual needs.

Request a consultation, classroom observation, or student focus group by emailing thectl@iupui.edu, calling the CTL at (317) 274-1300, or submitting a request on the CTL website.
